
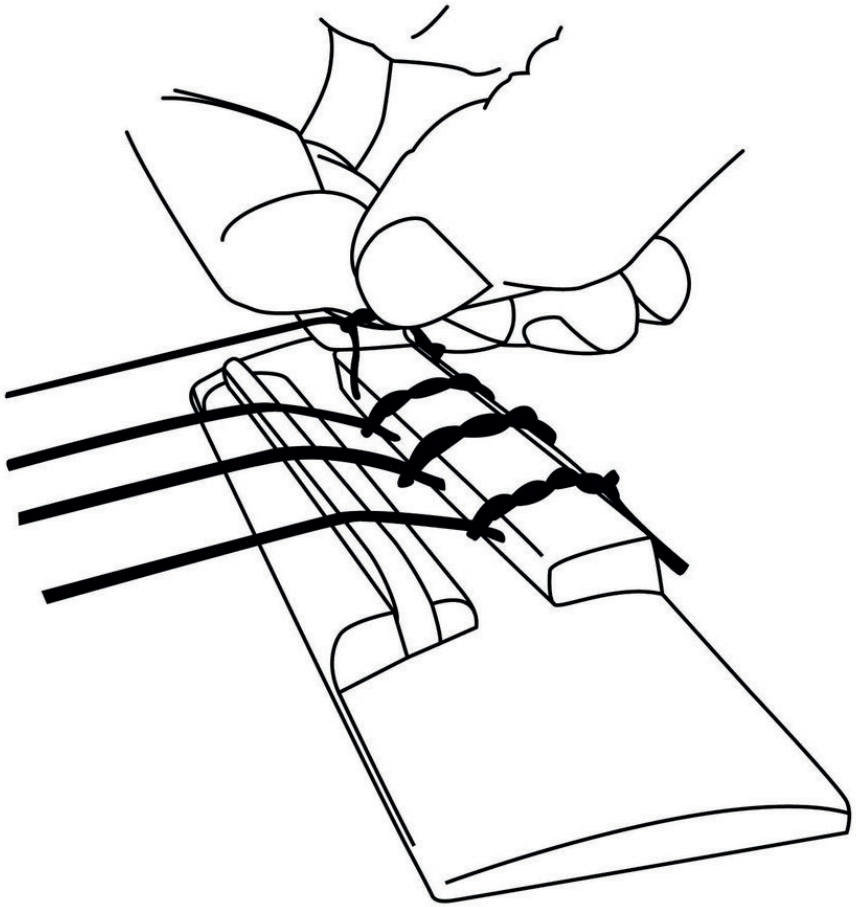
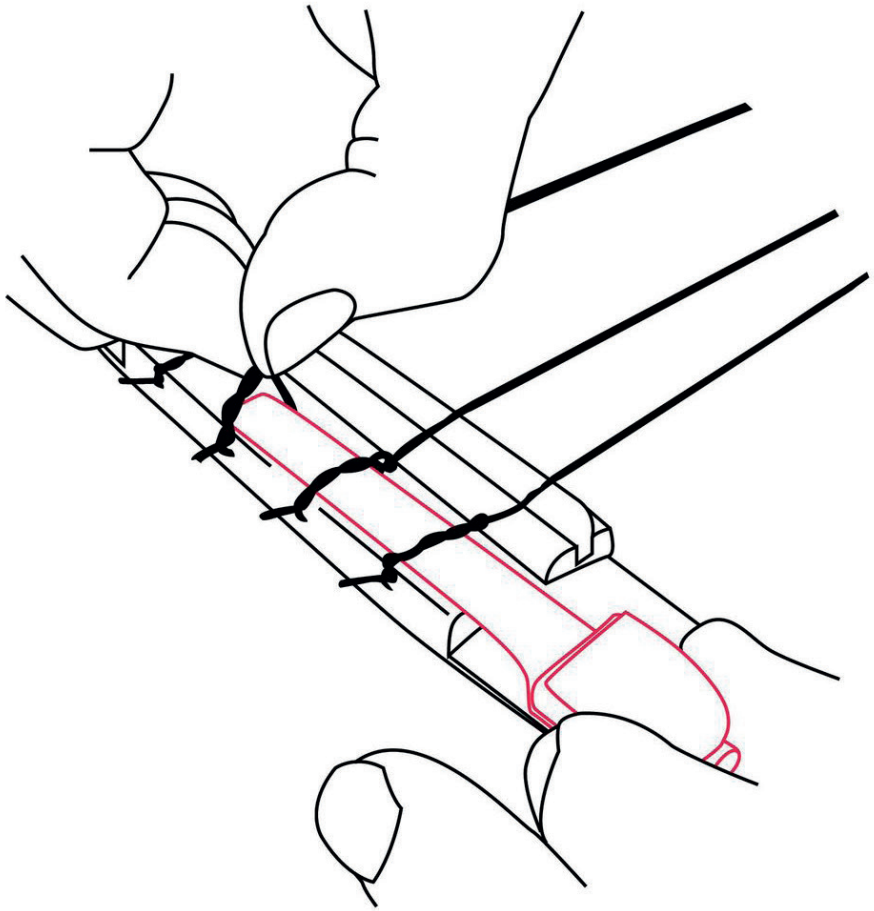
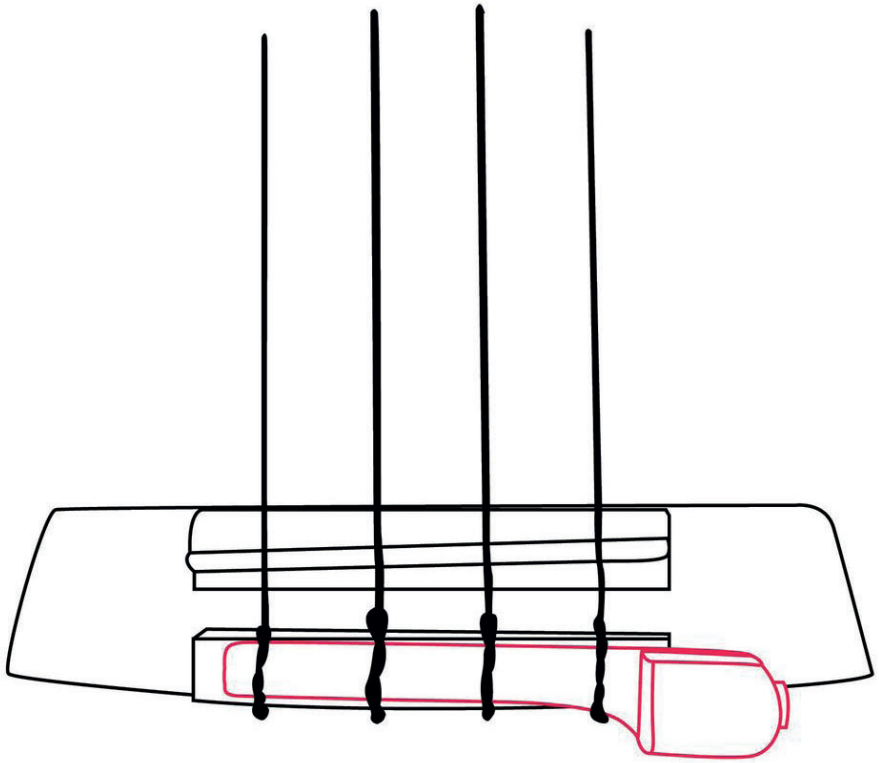
Loosen the strings of your ukulele.



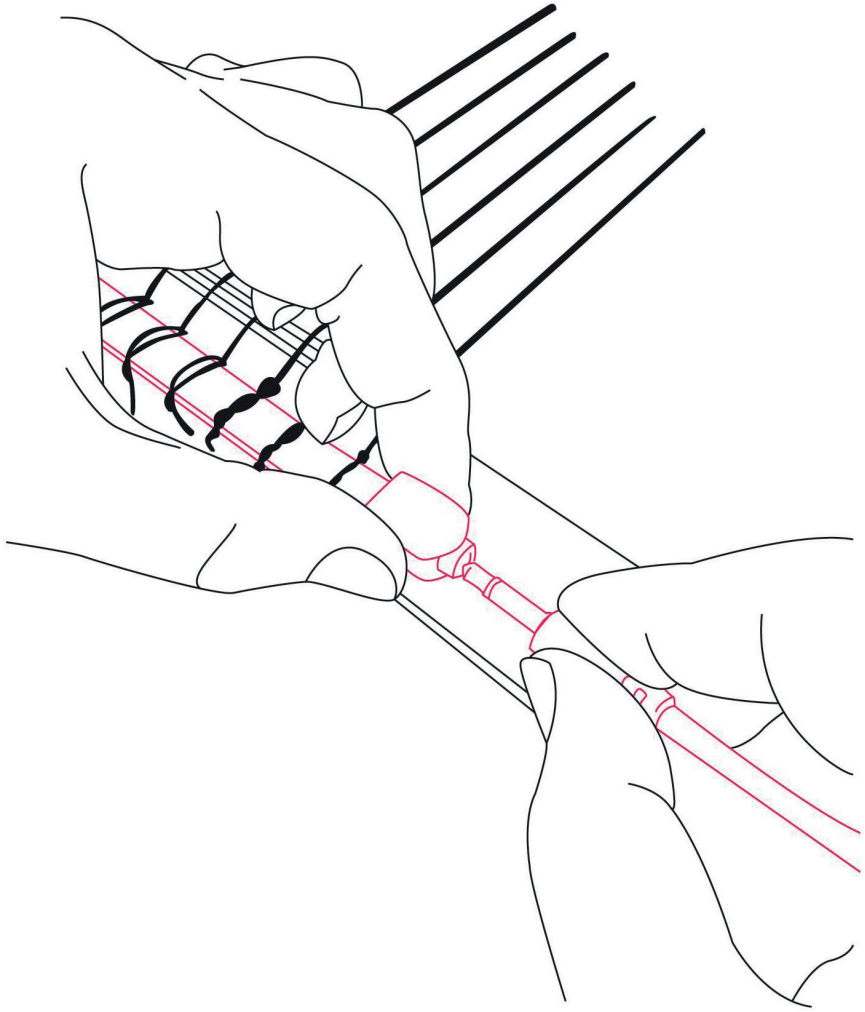
Make sure there is enough space under the loops so the pickup can slide through without any pressure.



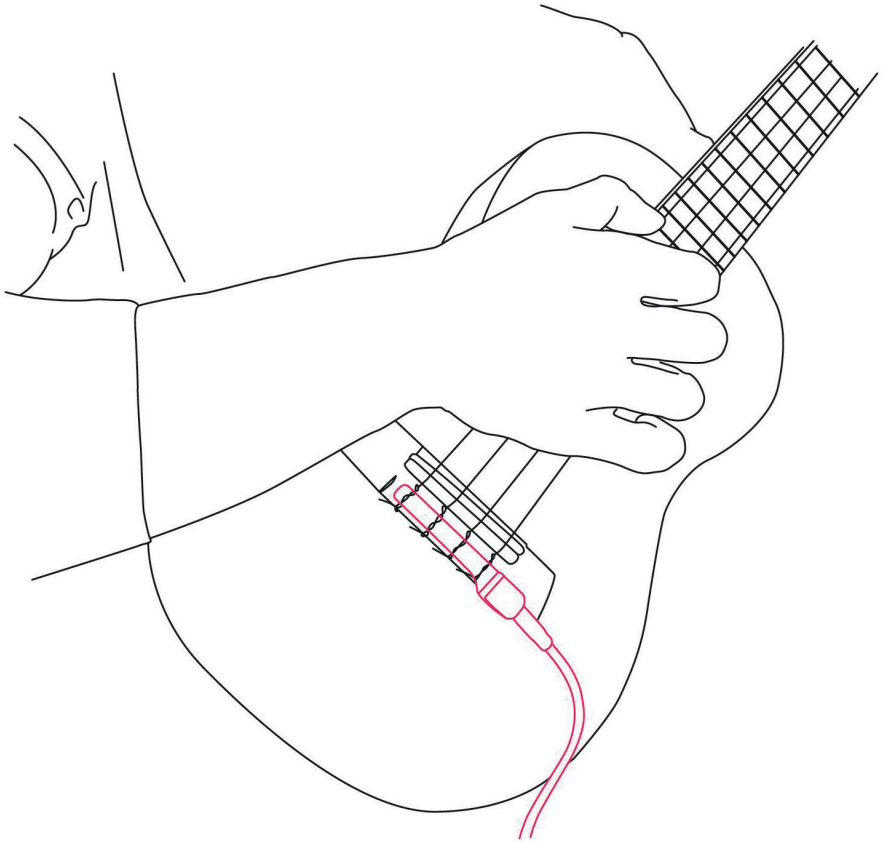
Slide the pickup under the loops.



Position it evenly on the tie bar while tightening the strings and retune.



Hold the pickup head securely while attaching and detaching the cable.



You are ready to enjoy your new pickup!